ALFA International Welcomes Oklahoma City Law Firm, *Phillips Murrah P.C. to the Global Legal Network

(OKLAHOMA CITY) March 26, 2009—ALFA International is pleased to announce the addition of Phillips Murrah P.C. (www.phillipsmurrah.com) to its network of global law firm members. Phillips Murrah is a full service business law firm located in Oklahoma City.

With 55 attorneys, Phillips Murrah provides a wide range of legal practice capabilities, including trial; appellate; banking; corporate; healthcare; insurance; product liability; and transportation. Founded in 1986, Phillips Murrah has grown to be one of the largest, most successful law firms headquartered in Oklahoma. More than lawyers, they are business people who serve as strategic partners, tailoring effective legal strategies around the long-range business objectives of their clients.

Phillips Murrah's client list includes Fortune 500 corporations, pharmaceutical companies; real estate developers; energy industry leaders; financial institutions; hospitals; insurance companies; product manufacturers; and government agencies.

“We’re excited to add a full service business law firm in a city as important as Oklahoma City,” said Richard Hetke, CEO of ALFA International. “As a significant business and energy center, Oklahoma City requires the level of sophisticated legal services that Phillips Murrah can provide to local, national and global clients.”

According to Thomas Wolfe, Phillips Murrah president and ALFA International contact partner, “The ALFA International network will enhance our role as strategic partners to our clients, providing them access to premier legal services across the globe—from Los Angeles to Luxembourg...to Lithuania.”
