ALFA International, the Global Legal Network, Strengthens Presence in Europe with New Member in Cyprus

(November 5, 2009) –ALFA International announces the addition of the LC Law Stylianou & Drakou LLC (LC Law) (www.lclaw.com.cy) a leading full service law firm in Nicosia, Cyprus, to its network of independent global law firms.

LC Law is an independent commercial law firm based in Nicosia and associated with local firms across the island nation of Cyprus. While the firm advises businesses in a variety of business and individual matters of law, the core activity of the firm is in the areas of corporate law, commercial law, mergers and acquisitions, intellectual property, banking, finance and capital markets, employment law, property and estate planning. Members of the firm are outstanding practitioners in their particular fields, have a well-proven knowledge in handling complex major transactions and offer clients first-class professional assistance paired with an in-depth understanding of their business.

LC Law's work focuses on helping clients gain the maximum commercial advantage in transactions such as acquisitions of companies or property, mergers and joint ventures, the financing of major capital projects and floatation's. The firm strives to assist their clients in avoiding litigation, but should a dispute go to court or arbitration, they are as tough and resourceful as any in the profession.

“The addition of the LC Law firm in Cyprus continues our strong expansion development into all regions of Europe and is an important component to our overall global membership,” stated Richard Hetke, CEO of ALFA International.

Lora Stylianou, the ALFA International Contact Partner at LC Law stated, “Our firm’s mission is to offer clients first-class professional assistance with a rapid response to their needs, whether in Cyprus or anywhere around the globe. We believe our membership in ALFA International will best allow our firm to further serve our clients’ needs and we are delighted to join the network.”
