(February 3, 2011) – ALFA International is pleased to announce the addition of AB & David (www.abdavid.com) as the exclusive member law firm for ALFA International in Ghana.

AB & David is a 24-lawyer full service West Africa focused business law firm with a main office in Accra and branch offices in Kumasi and Takoradi, Ghana. The firm's main areas of practice are Corporate and Finance; Construction and Engineering; Commercial Litigation and ADR; Environmental and Transportation; International Trade; Immigration; IP; Labor; Oil, Gas and Energy; Real Estate and Property; and Government Projects.

According to Richard Hetke, ALFA International's CEO, "As global businesses from around the globe continue to expand in Africa, specifically West Africa, it has become most critical that they are able to have exceptional legal services across this complex environment. Ghana is a growing country with a strong economy that is expected to see continuing and tremendous development. With the addition of AB & David, ALFA International and its member firms will have a direct connect to the commercial and legal activity taking place there."

David Ofosu-Dorte (david@abdavid.com), the ALFA International Contact Partner at AB & David stated, "We look forward to working with our fellow ALFA International members around the world to provide their clients with our innovative, client-focused legal solutions for doing business in Ghana and West Africa in a way that is simple and hassle free.”
