ALFA International, the Global Legal Network, Announces Program of 2011 Corporate Sponsorship

Four companies sign on to sponsor the ALFA global legal network in 2011

(May 2, 2011) – The ALFA International Board of Directors announces a first time initiative (DIRECTCONNECT) that invites participation of business sponsors that provide valuable services and products to member law firms and legal departments. The goal is to select the “best-of-the-best” and facilitate their interaction with the ALFA membership and clientele through a variety of internal and client focused programs across the United States and around the globe.

GOLD Level Sponsors

- Matson, Driscoll & Damico Forensic Accountants
- Rimkus Consulting Group

SILVER Level Sponsor

- Paradigm Management Services

PARTNER Level Sponsor

- Agility Recovery Solutions

According to ALFA International CEO, Richard Hetke, “this new program highlights critical services that our member law firms and their clients use in their day to day strategy and operations. There are various levels of sponsorship allowing sponsoring organizations to customize their involvement and interaction with ALFA International’s constituent groups. . We have been able to align ourselves with four top-notch organizations that offer services of great importance and we truly believe DIRECTCONNECT is a win-win for members and sponsors.”
