ALFA International, the Global Legal Network, Expands Coverage in Southern Africa with New Member in Zambia

(July 5, 2011) – ALFA International, the global legal network, is pleased to announce the addition of Mulenga Mundashi & Company (MM & Co.) as the exclusive member law firm for ALFA International in Zambia.

Mulenga Mundashi & Company, founded in 1999, is a well established and expanding 5-lawyer, full service law firm based in the capital city of Lusaka, Zambia. While their strengths lie in corporate and tax advisory and dispute resolution, the firm is also highly experienced in the fields of conveyancing, securities, insolvency, labor law, debt recovery, and general litigation. MM & Co. is widely recognized in the industry as providing excellent quality and value-for-money legal services.

According to Richard Hetke, ALFA International’s CEO, “Many global companies are expanding across Africa and it is extremely important that these businesses have access to top-notch legal services in this part of the world. Zambia is beginning to emerge as a growth area in Southern Africa, and ALFA International and its member firms will benefit from having Mulenga Mundashi & Company as their go-to firm with the knowledge and experience to effectively and efficiently handle legal issues in the region.”

Linda Kasonde (lkasonde@mulengamundashi.co.zm), the ALFA International Contact Partner at Mulenga Mundashi & Company stated, “We are pleased to be a part of the ALFA International organization and look forward to working with ALFA International members and clients throughout the world when they have a need for legal services in Southern Africa. Zambia is experiencing a time of great economic reform in industries such as agriculture, tourism, gemstone and metal mining, and hydro-power. There exist many new investment opportunities and we look forward to providing our experienced, cost-effective legal services to businesses seeking to expand in these and many other industries in our area of the world.”
