(June 15, 2005) The ALFA International Bankruptcy Practice Group (BPG) chaired by attorney Dan McGarry (Rider Bennett, Minneapolis, MN) will serve on the editorial board of a new legal publication entitled 'Journal of Bankruptcy Law'. This unique editorial representation via one individual provides the knowledge and expertise of over fifty corporate bankruptcy attorneys from across the United States and around the globe.

Published by A. S. Pratt & Sons, the Journal will be subscription based and will present eight issues annually. According to the Journal's Editor-in-Chief Steven A. Meyerowitz, "Our focus is an in-depth examination of significant bankruptcy and creditors rights issues for senior executives within the broad financial institutions marketplace. We are pleased to have the editorial participation of the ALFA International Bankruptcy Practice Group bringing insight and issue expertise from all regions of the U.S."

Editorial responsibilities will be directed by the ALFA BPG Chair Daniel McGarry. According to Mr. McGarry, "ALFA's Bankruptcy Practice Group will explore bankruptcy topics through a series of columns, accepting material from our members in the United States and abroad. As our members practice in fifty-plus different firms, we can bring a unique perspective to the quickly changing legal issues of interest to the Journals readership."

ALFA INTERNATIONAL is an international organization of independent law firms.
