

A Song for Ireland

Lesson for Life in the Law from the Emerald Isle

1. Irish songs remind us of lessons for life, whether your career be in the law or elsewhere.
2. The songs speak of humility, loss, hope, joy, redemption, resilience, and friendship.
3. Our five panelists, coming from all walks of life, will share their personal stories about how they dealt with all manner of challenges.
4. Irish folk songs teach us about the importance of community, resilience in the face of hardship, the power of storytelling through music, the deep connection to the Irish landscape, themes of love and loss, and the celebration of heritage and identity, often reflecting historical events and personal experiences passed down through generations.
5. From A Song for Ireland to A Parting Glass, Irish songs can teach even stubborn lawyers how to value what's important in life.

5 FOR THE ROAD

Christopher A. Page

Moderator

YOUNG MOORE AND HENDERSON

Raleigh, North Carolina

chris.page@youngmoorelaw.com

Mona Costelloe

BRYNE WALLACE SHIELDS

Dublin, Ireland

mcostelloe@byrnewallace.com

Mackenzie C. Monaco

MONACO COOPER LAMME & CARR

Albany, New York

mmonaco@mclclaw.com