

Winning AI Gold For In-House Legal Departments (& Avoiding the Agony of Defeat)

Cody J. Cooper
Moderator

PHILLIPS MURRAH P.C.
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma
cjcooper@phillipsmurray.com

GOLD MEDAL: AI is here to stay and the constantly changing developments and abilities of AI provide business (and their legal counterparts) significant opportunities to improve existing capabilities for the better.

John Osgathorpe
TAYLOR DAY

Jacksonville, Florida
JDO@TaylorDayLaw.com

SILVER MEDAL: AI's unfettered and unsupervised use for business and legal functions also can create material risks that when not properly addressed have the potential to cause a myriad of practical, ethical and legal issues.

Christin Krämer
T I E F E N B A C H E R
RECHTSANWÄLTE | STEUERBERATER
Heidelberg, Germany
kraemer@tiefenbacher.de

BRONZE MEDAL: Early and frequent collaboration between users of AI products and their legal counterparts are the best way to understand and mitigate potential legal risks.

HONORABLE MENTION: Keeping up-to-date on the constantly evolving landscape surrounding AI is challenging but critical.

HONORABLE MENTION: Mitigating legal risk will require forward-looking, creative thinking on the part of legal counsel because AI technology and the applicable laws are constantly changing.