A/C/R, a Dynamic New Chilean Firm, Joins ALFA International

ALFA International (ALFAI) is excited to announce that A/C/R, a dynamic and innovative law firm based in Santiago, has officially joined the ALFAI network as its member firm in Chile, effective March 6, 2025.

A/C/R brings together seasoned attorneys with decades of experience, adept at navigating complex markets and addressing crises with agility and expertise. A/C/R is committed to fostering effective communication, providing strategic legal advice and partnering seamlessly with clients to deliver creative and efficient legal solutions.

A/C/R has designated Luis Felipe Arze and Stephan Lührmann as its ALFAI Contact Partners. The firm will actively engage in several ALFAI Practice Groups, including Corporate & Commercial Transactions, Women's Initiative, Future Leaders, Labor & Employment and the Latin American Regional Group.

Luis Felipe Arze expressed his excitement, stating, "Joining the ALFAI network will empower our firm to forge meaningful connections, enhance our capabilities and unlock global opportunities for our clients and our firm alike."

Jessica Zaroski Bauer, ALFAI's CEO, mirrored this sentiment, saying, "We celebrate A/C/R's impressive journey since its inception. Their energetic approach and dedication to building trusted client relationships, along with delivering outstanding results, perfectly align with ALFAI's mission. A/C/R is a welcomed addition to the network and will be a valuable resource in Latin America."
