

Choose Your Own Adventure

1. Embrace risk, don't run from it.
2. Use all tools and information at your disposal to compliment experience and "gut instincts."
3. Have many voices at the table when evaluating disputes and claims.
4. Acknowledge and overcome built-in biases on the path to resolution.
5. Remember our humanity and recognize your opponent's viewpoint.

Michael Gibson
HIGGS FLETCHER & MACK LLP
San Diego, California
gibsonm@higgslaw.com

Monica Garcia
BUTT THORNTON & BAEHR PC
Albuquerque, New Mexico
mrgarcia@btblaw.com

Ross Maddalena
MERRICK, HOFSTEDT & LINDSEY,
P.S.
Seattle, Washington
rmaddalena@mhlseattle.com

John Sykes
CHARLES RUSSELL SPEECHLYS
London, England
John.Sykes@crsblaw.com