Jason Goodnight Honored as ALFA International's 2025 Nathan Fishbach Attorney of the Year Award Winner

During the ALFA International (ALFAI) Annual Business Meeting held in Madrid, Spain, on October 9, 2025, Jason Goodnight, a partner at Franden | Farris | Quillin | Goodnight | Roberts + Ward, ALFAI's member firm in Tulsa, Oklahoma, was honored with the prestigious 2025 Nathan Fishbach Attorney of the Year Award.

This award, named in memory of Nathan Fishbach, the first recipient of the ALFAI Attorney of the Year Award, represents the highest standards of excellence that an attorney, a supportive ALFAI colleague and a true friend can embody. ALFAI takes pride in honoring Nathan's lasting legacy through this accolade.

Jason is a highly respected attorney and a driving force within the ALFAI network. He currently serves as the Chair of the Gig Economy Practice Group and was also the group's Program Chair for 2025. In addition, he is an active member of several other ALFAI practice groups, including Transportation, Product Liability & Complex Torts and Oil, Gas & Energy.

But Jason's contributions go beyond his practice groups. He plays a key role on ALFAI's Marketing Committee and is leading a new business development initiative for the organization. Additionally, he participates in ALFAI's Managing Partner Forum, where firm leaders gather to share insights to move both their firms and ALFAI forward.

Jessica Zaroski Bauer, CEO of ALFAI, expressed her admiration for Jason, stating, "Jason is not only an exceptional attorney but also a dear friend. His commitment to ALFAI is inspiring, and his unwavering dedication to his clients and ALFAI colleagues truly embodies the spirit of our network. Congratulations, Jason, on this well-deserved honor!"
